About

Songwriter, Singer, and Multi-Instrumentalist Robert Dale Klein's music is rich with human experience and insight. As he puts it, "I've spent a fair number of years on this earth. Every relationship, place, challenge, and opportunity, and each mistake and lesson learned, have helped me find a voice to connect my heart with others. Creating that connection is my true passion."

Bob's songs and compositions have been performed on radio and TV, in film, musical theater, and on countless stages across the USA and foreign countries in both hemispheres. They've also garnered recognition from Country Music Television (CMT), the Nashville Songwriters Association International (NSAI), the Mid-Atlantic Songwriting Contest, the Berklee College of Music, and a variety of music industry publications. Eight of the ten songs on his album "This Side of the Dirt" have made the Top Five or Top Ten on KC Café Radio in Kansas City, and the album as a whole soared to #6 for the entire year 2019 on the Outlaw Country Chart (Roots Music Report).

Bob has co-written with numerous critically-acclaimed artists, including Dan Navarro, Phil Madeira, Will Kimbrough, Cindy Morgan, Jennifer Ferguson Smith, Sasha Lazard, Juliana MacDowell, Donna Britton, David Glaser, Chuck McDowell, John Mulder, and Lauren Calve.

Bob is a Coordinator of both the Washington, D.C. Metro Area chapter of NSAI and of NSAI's entire Mid-Atlantic Region. He is a member of the Songwriters Association of Washington, Folk Alliance International, and the Americana Music Association.
